Re: Curley v. Monmouth County Board of Chosen Freeholders
Index No. 3:17-cv-12300-BRM-TJB

Dear Judge Martinotti:

We represent Plaintiff John Curley in the above-captioned matter. On February 20, 2018, counsel for Defendants Michael Fitzgerald, Esq. and Teri O'Connor sent a letter (ECF No. 34) requesting that oral argument on the Defendants motions to dismiss be held at the same time as argument on Plaintiff's Motion for Contempt.

Plaintiff's Motion for Contempt (ECF No. 8) was filed on December 22, 2017, and originally returnable on January 16, 2018. As a courtesy to counsel for Defendants Fitzgerald and O'Connor, who substituted into the case in January, we consented to an adjournment of Plaintiff's contempt motion until February 5, 2018. Given that this issue has been pending and fully briefed for several weeks, and that the motions to dismiss are only returnable on March 19, 2018, we request that the Court conduct oral argument first on the motion for contempt to avoid further delay.

We have reached out to counsel for Defendants regarding available dates. Plaintiff's counsel is available on March 9 and 13 and counsel for Defendants Fitzgerald and O'Connor have indicated their availability for oral argument on those dates. Counsel for the County Defendants has not yet responded as to his availability. We respectfully request that the Court schedule oral argument for the Motion for Contempt on March 9 or 13.

Hon. Brian Martinotti, U.S.D.J.
